

Congratulations!

You are a member of AHLA, the premier association for health lawyers and other health care professionals!

How could life get any better?

By Joining the Medical Staff, Credentialing, and Peer Review Practice Group (MSCPR PG), That's How!

As a member of the MSCPR PG, you will be able to benefit from the many initiatives of the PG, including:

- ❖ News and information in our email and Twitter updates, and in-depth legal and regulatory analyses regarding the organization and operations of medical and professional staffs in health care entities and organizations;
- ❖ The unparalleled expertise of MSCPR PG members, providing you the resources you can't get anywhere else, such as:
  - ◆ The Patient Safety Organizations Work Group Toolkit;
  - ◆ Comments on the draft National Practitioner Data Bank Guidebook; and
  - ◆ The upcoming Accountable Care Organization Credentialing Work Group Toolkit.
- ❖ Analysis and best practices from thought leaders and decision makers at AHLA's in-person educational programs and its webinars, bootcamps, roundtable discussions, and educational calls;
- ❖ Membership in the Physician/Attorney Affinity Group, which is committed to advancing the understanding and application of medical staff, credentialing, and peer review principles to the health care industry. The purposes of this Affinity Group are to address and facilitate the understanding of medical staff, credentialing, and peer review concerns from the physician attorney's perspective; to serve as a resource for the MSCPR PG and AHLA; and to provide networking opportunities for AHLA's physicians/lawyers.
- ❖ Collaboration with the National Association Medical Staff Services to bring valuable insights and practical experiences from medical staff professionals. Past joint webinars include:
  - ◆ Best Practices to Ensure Human Resources and the Medical Staff Office are Working Together;
  - ◆ Credentialing Across Multiple Entities; and
  - ◆ Late Career Practitioner Policy.
