

Oregon Association Medical Staff Services

PREAMBLE

The Oregon Association Medical Staff Services (OAMSS) is a professional organization with membership throughout the state of Oregon. Our association is comprised of individuals involved in credentialing, privileging, practitioner or provider organizations, provider enrollment, quality, risk management and/or regulatory compliance in the healthcare industry. OAMSS members have various responsibilities, which may include but are not limited to the following:

- Credentialing and privileging of physicians and other health care practitioners;
- Researching and developing privileging criteria for new technology;
- Accreditation compliance
- Administering rules and regulations
- Developing, establishing, and enforcing of medical staff bylaws, rules and regulations, and policies that govern the activities of the medical staff

Medical Staff Services professionals are found in hospitals, Managed Care Organizations (MCO), Independent Practice Associations (IPA), Centralized Verification Organizations (CVO), Health Maintenance Organizations (HMO), Preferred Provider Organizations (PPO), consulting firms, state licensing boards, medical groups, and medical societies. Their purpose is to help promote compliance with the myriad of existing and ever changing health care mandates, as well as serving as liaison between healthcare practitioners and senior management.

OAMSS is actively affiliated with the National Association Medical Staff Services (NAMSS) which has a membership close to 5,000 members in all 50 states. NAMSS' mission is to enhance the professional development and recognition of the profession in the areas of practitioner credentialing, privileging, professional practice evaluation, provider enrollment, quality improvement, risk management, and/or regulatory compliance and management.

The Board of Directors (BOD) of OAMSS, representing medical staff services professionals and credentialing specialists, have formed a professional association keeping with the standards and practices of NAMSS:

- OAMSS leadership shall seek continuing education accreditation from NAMSS;
 - OAMSS leadership shall seek approval of the OAMSS bylaws by NAMSS;
 - OAMSS membership shall endeavor to follow the guidelines, practices and policies of NAMSS;
- and
- OAMSS membership shall adhere to the Mission and Code of Ethics of NAMSS.

POLICY: #0023

TITLE: Membership Dues

Adopted: 2/24/96

Revised: 5/2016

Reviewed: 10/2010

Annual dues for membership classification shall be due and payable January 1st for the ensuing calendar year.

Dues shall be sent to the Membership Chair who shall maintain a list of the names of the member, credential, position, employing organization, mailing address, telephone, fax, and email. If a Membership Chair has not been appointed, dues shall be sent to the Treasurer.

A member who joins the OAMSS during the last quarter of the calendar year (October to December) shall pay the annual dues amount for the current year, which shall satisfy the dues requirement for the ensuing year. Failure to pay dues within thirty (30) days of the specified date shall result in inactivation of membership with notification by email from the Membership Chair. The member may be reinstated upon payment of past and/or current dues.

Annual Dues are an amount set by the BOD.

Current Dues are $60 (change effective 5/96) for Active Membership, $50 for Affiliate Members, and there are no dues assessed for Honorary Members.

Notices shall be sent to prospective members. Membership dues are non-transferable.

If this Association is disbanded, any and all assets of OAMSS will be forfeited to the NAMSS treasury.

POLICY: #0036 TITLE: Scholarship Policy

Adopted: 2/24/96

Revised: 5/2016

Reviewed: 10/2010

OAMSS awards a scholarship annually (as funds allow) to members who wish to obtain their certification or attend an annual OAMSS or NAMSS conference.

The BOD shall budget a set amount each year for the OAMSS Scholarship Fund, considering funds available in the total budget for the year. Members will be notified which scholarship(s) are available after finalization of the annual budget for that calendar year. The BOD has determined that Conference registration and reimbursements (lodging, transportation, and meals in accordance with the Reimbursement and Travel Policy) will not exceed $500.00 for State and $1,000.00 for National Conferences.

To qualify for the scholarship all applicants must be active OAMSS members of at least twelve (12) months, who are in good standing, and whose institution is unable/unwilling to sponsor attendance/certification. Applicants may receive one scholarship in any three-year period. Applications submitted from the same organization for the same purpose may receive only one scholarship for that calendar year.

1. Applicants must submit an OAMSS application form in writing by mail, fax or online via the OAMSS website to the Scholarship Chair. Applications are considered complete when the Scholarship Chair has received the application and required supporting documents. (Refer to attachments 1,2,3)
2. Applicants must provide descriptive information related to the current or planned educational activity for which the scholarship is being sought, and cost of the activity.
3. Applicants must include an essay detailing past, present, and planned contributions to the medical staff services profession, and include a brief explanation of how the planned activity will benefit applicant both professionally and personally.
4. Application deadline is sixty (60) calendar days prior to the registration deadline for the applicable event.

The Scholarship Chair/Committee will evaluate applications based on the following:

- a) Commitment to educational growth as a medical staff professional;
- b) Demonstration of sincere enthusiasm and support of the goals and mission of OAMSS;
- c) Future benefits to applicant and to OAMSS as a result of the scholarship.

The Scholarship Chair will forward application packets to the Scholarship Committee for evaluation. The Scholarship Committee will make their recommendation(s) for selection of the recipient(s) and forward to the BOD for final approval.

The BOD will choose and notify the scholarship recipient(s) of the annual scholarship(s) based on the Scholarship Committee's recommendation.

The Scholarship Chair will notify all applicants of the scholarship recipient(s) in writing by mail or email.
